

ROGUE Leader: PD Reflection Prompts

Use these question prompts during a professional development session in order for participants to reflect!

What is my most important takeaway from this session?

How does this takeaway impact my learning?

What might I do differently based on what I learned today?

How will I use this learning to help impact students?

If I had to teach this information to a colleague, how would I do it?

What did I learn that I must share with a colleague?

How can I use this with students tomorrow?

How can I take this idea or information and make it better?

How did this learning change my thinking?

Do I agree or disagree with what has been shared today?

What follow-up information do I need?

Why is what I've learned today meaningful and relevant?

Pick up your copy of ROGUE Leader today to learn more!

